

My Personal Road Map (Numerology)

Hidden Passion Number

(This number reflects your trigger points- the things in life that will light a fire under your ass, so-to-speak. In regards to your Personal Road Map, knowing your HPN would be beneficial because you'd be able to look at where you're going and be able to see what possible stops you should avoid or at least be prepared for... like avoiding a certain gas station with notoriously long lines or expensive fuel rates because you know those will just piss you off. But, it's also not about what to avoid, it's also much like a combo between the Expression/Destiny Number & your Soul Urge/Heart's Desire Number, in that it's about what you're good at doing, but also LOVE doing, naturally. The HPN is a truly important clarifier.)

*For this exercise, we will be using (for the most part) worldnumerology.com. There is some information to be gleaned from a few smaller sites that you might want to check out, but again, you'll get most of what you need from this one site mentioned.

*To find your Hidden Passion Number, look at ALL of the numbers in your FULL NAME AT BIRTH. We are looking for the mode/the number that occurs most often.

*Let's use the name example we've been using, Graham Wilbur Boxworth

Graham Wilbur Boxworth

Using the chart from Lesson #2, we get:

791814 593239 26656928

Below, you have the numbers 1-9

For each number, tally up how many times each number appears in the FULL name.

1. 2
2. 3
3. 2
4. 1
5. 2
6. 3
7. 1
8. 2
9. 4

From the chart, our Fictional Mr. Boxworth has a HPN of #9

Now, using 1 of 2 methods, we're going to pick apart the number's meaning as it relates to you.

Choose One.

Method #1 Pick 2 different colored highlighters, and look at what you copied down on the previous page. HIGHLIGHT in one color what you AGREE with "This IS ME", and HIGHLIGHT in another color what you DISAGREE with "This IS NOT ME".

Method #2 Use Circles & Underlines; UNDERLINE what you AGREE with "This IS ME", CIRCLE what you DISAGREE with "This IS NOT ME".

After you have finished copying down that information...

*For the traits of this number that you feel you DISAGREE with... list each one that you feel DOES NOT DESCRIBE you; using one block per trait, and then give a counter argument/reason why you think this isn't YOU.

*Remember, over our lifetimes, we grow as individuals. Maybe you used to be "that way" or, maybe you haven't yet become "that way". These are all possibilities of your potential.

*And, lastly... before you start this last part, now is a good time to remind you of the Bonus Lesson "List Page of Labels". Within this lesson (along with all of the previous ones) there has been plenty of information (with labels) given to describe you. Go through this information and write down as many of those labels on that page, so you can begin to get a clearer picture of WHO you ARE.
