Karmic Lesson(s)

(Karmic Lessons are exactly what they sound like: Lessons brought about by a Karmic wheel/cycle; that we have yet to master. And it is THIS lifetime, THIS moment; that we are given THIS course of study. Think of your Karmic Lesson(s) as your Course Syllabus for school; you're not only finding out WHAT you need to learn, but (unlike regular school) the teacher is giving you the test answers AND an actual reason as to WHY you'd want to learn the lesson in the first place, by AWAKENING that desire deep within you. How's that for an education, amirite?)

*For this exercise, we will be using (for the most part) worldnumerology.com

*To find your Karmic Lessons, the process is consists of you finding WHICH NUMBERS are NOT represented in your FULL NAME GIVEN at BIRTH.

*Let's use the name example we've been using, Graham Wilbur Boxworth

Graham Wilbur Boxworth

Using the chart from Lesson #2, we get:

791814 593239 26656928

1 appears 2 times
2 appears 3 times
3 appears 2 times
4 appears 1 time
5 appears 2 times
6 appears 3 times
7 appears 1 time
8 appears 2 times
9 appears 4 times

From the chart, our Fictional Mr. Boxworth has NO KARMIC LESSONS because EVERY Number is present, so technically, (he) could skip this lesson. If you are like our fictional Mr. Boxworth, and have NO KARMIC LESSON(s), you too, can skip this lesson, or perhaps you can choose to see if the numbers that are represented in your name only once, have any meaning for you. Perhaps you'll see something in those number's lessons that resonates? Just my opinion. You do what feels right.

My Personal Road Map (Numerology)

SPOILER ALERT: If within your core numbers (Life Path, Birthday, Heart’s Desire/Soul’s Urge, Expression, and/or Personality Number) you have ANY of the missing numbers, then the Karmic Lesson(s) isn’t absolved, BUT the effects of (it) are lessened. By how much? For that, I again implore you to read Part #2 of Hanz Decoz’ explanation on Karmic Lessons (on worldnumerology.com), linked in the online portion of this lesson.

Now, go to worldnumerology.com using the link provided in the online lesson; you'll find your "Lessons" starting about halfway down the page.

The Lesson that follows is set up AS a SYLLABUS. I thought it would be a bit fun to outline these "Lessons" that way.

Let’s Begin...

For the example for this exercise, I’m going to use Karmic Lesson #3 because it is one of my FOUR Karmic Lessons that I have! I will be re-wording and restructuring the information given from worldnumerology.com, which is as follows:

“Karmic Lesson is 3

You are highly self-critical. Every time you find yourself at the center of attention, you manage to find something in your performance to be entirely inadequate or embarrassing. You have established an impossible standard of perfection as the only measure of your actions. You need to lighten up on yourself. Realize that you have within you a critical faculty that must be contained and controlled. Otherwise, it can prevent you from doing what you truly enjoy in life. You're too serious. Be more optimistic and cheerful, enjoy life as it was meant to be and share this joy with others.

Life will put you in situations that require imagination and communication. You will be tested in these areas. You will be forced to face the challenge. Missing threes will often produce artists but their success requires much work and perseverance.”

The different highlighted sections have corresponding highlighted lines, below*

(Example) LIFE SYLLABUS

Course Name:	Karmic Lesson #3: You’ll make the world better through your ART
Course Description:	In this course, you will learn how to enjoy life as it was meant to be and how to share this joy with others, through art (probably), by working hard and persevering
Course Objectives:	Learn to lighten up on yourself Learn to Recognize, Contain, AND Control, your inner critical faculty that prevents you from doing what you truly enjoy Learn how to be more optimistic & Cheerful

My Personal Road Map (Numerology)

Specific Course Requirements:	Must be Highly Self-Critical
	Have an impossible standard of perfection as your only measure of your actions; i.e.: the ability to find something in your performance that is inadequate and/or embarrassing
Provided Course Materials:	Must be too serious
	Situations that require imagination & communication, with TESTS... NO EXCEPTIONS/NO OPTING OUT

The “Course Description” is basically where you’ll write down a bit about how exactly you’ll overcome/attain your objective.

The “Course Objective(s)” are the things you’re going to learn along the way.

The “Specific Course Requirements” are the visible signs/traits about you/your personality that demonstrate you are in the right class, basically.

And The “Provided Course Materials” are the things/situations that “life” will throw at you to help you learn this lesson.

I really want you to have fun with this assignment. I realize maybe I see things a bit differently, but after looking at ALL FOUR of my Karmic Lesson(s) (which, btw, I have a correlating Core Number for each, lol), I honestly believe that this format of a syllabus can and will work to help shine a bit of light on what to expect on our Personal Journeys. I hope this helps.

Also, because the average of Karmic Lessons is around 2 or 3, with a possibility of 4 or 5 (or more), I’m including enough space here for a total of 5 Karmic Lessons.
Reprint the last page is you need more space.
